

Media Contact:
Nyota Byfield
nyota@cls-volunteer.org

Eydie Robinson Joins Classy Living Society in the Movement for Change as an Appointed Executive Advocate in Dallas, Texas.

Dallas, TX -- March 11, 2019 -- Classy Living Society, LLC, a national women's organization that believes in giving back to the community by partnering with small local charities as well as small businesses, has announced Eydie Robinson as an Executive Advocate in Dallas, Texas.

Eydie, a native of St. Louis, Missouri, currently resides in Dallas, Texas where she enjoys the Lone Star State and officially has made it her home. Eydie is the mother of three children, Christopher - 19, Makayla - 13 and Aubrey - 8 and is also a 3x "timed" published author, motivational speaker, founder of the 501c3 non-profit organization, Desire to Empower and CEO of Empowered Girls Soar.

"I am honored to have been chosen to serve Dallas, Texas as an Executive Advocate for Classy Living Society. I share a common goal with this organization, and that is to see real change in our world while engaging in meaningful sisterhood bonding with like-minded women, says Eydie." "Furthermore, I am looking forward with great excitement and anticipation to volunteer, attend social events and sisterhood outings with the women of Dallas."

"Engaging others around the world in the movement to effectuate change in our communities and to serve as 'foot-soldiers' is the basis for making a difference and touching the lives of everyone who is in need in every city, state and around the world." Classy Living Society understands that ultimately teamwork makes the dream work," said LaShanda Pitts, Founder & CEO. "Pitts added, "Allowing for the organic growth and sharing of our "Volunteer, Socialize and Inspire" initiative gives women around the world an opportunity to become involved in a movement which is greater than themselves." Eydie is a perfect fit for this role and we are happy she has accepted her appointment as an Executive Advocate in Dallas.

As an Executive Advocate, Ms. Robinson will work collectively with Classy Living Society's Executive Leadership Team in furthering the mission of igniting change. What makes this opportunity even more exciting is that Eydie will be working closely in the community that she is familiar with and will help to serve her community as an active voice through her efforts to put forth initiated volunteer efforts, and sisterhood bonding events.

To learn more about Eydie Robinson visit www.cls-volunteer.org

###

About Classy Living Society, LLC: Classy Living Society, was founded in 2013 as a multi-faceted women's community service organization with a commitment to change the world! With a hands-on approach to volunteerism, CLS partners with charities and nonprofit organizations and provides them with resources to carry out their mission and vision. As a membership-driven private social club, CLS strongly promotes sisterhood and inspires women to connect with other like-minded women, by hosting high-end, exciting and premier events, galas and social functions throughout the year. Customized educational forums and workshops are fashioned for members and member business owners to empower, rejuvenate and promote growth. Please visit www.cls-volunteer.org to learn more.